§ 602.215 Data regarding borrowers and loan applicants.

Because the relationship between borrowers and the institutions in the cooperative Farm Credit System is confidential, Farm Credit Administration personnel shall hold in strict confidence all information regarding character, credit standing, and property of borrowers and applicants for loans. They shall not exhibit or quote the following documents: Loan applications; letters and statements relative to the character, credit standing, and property of borrowers and applicants; recommendations of loan committees; and reports of inspectors, fieldmen, investigators, and appraisers, except as authorized by § 618.8320 of this chapter. This section is subject to the following further exceptions:

(a) Farm Credit Administration examiners and other accredited representatives of the Farm Credit Administration shall have free access to all information, records, and files.
